Edward Mahoney's cottage at Virginia Beach.

Yesterday was the hottest day of the season. The thermometer went to 102 in our office. Ninety-nine was the highest it has registered in the same place before. The weather bureau says it has reached its climax and will now break up.

A colored woman in trying to jump off a street car was thrown violently to the ground yesterday and was bruised considerably.

rear yesterday on the corner of Dinwiddie and High streets. Dr. J. W.
Codd worked on him for some time before he showed signs of recovery.

He was finally carried to the stable.

A foolish rumor was circulated yesterday that some one had prophesied that to-day would be the hottest day ever known. It would be so hot that the water in the river would boil. A number of people believed it and continued to tell the story.

Dr. F. C. Edwards found some comfort in keeping people from the hospital grounds in the afternoon, but he cannot rest assured that his name will be kindly remembered in the prayers of the ladies of this city, who have always been allowed to roam freely through these grounds at their pleasure.

Portsmouth had to supply Norfolk with ice yesterday. Their plant was Welton, H. L. Maynard, Wm. L. Thompson, Judson King, Archie New,

John Dolan and Julian F. Pace.

HARD LUCK.

Portsmouth Lost to Newport News yesterday.

Johnnie Kaufman pitched the game for Portsmouth yesterday afternoon, and except in two innings, the first and the last, pitched very clever ball, showing a steadiness and control which was highly creditable. His support was a little slow at times, but there were no errors behind him, and on the whole it was a very interesting game.

Newport News scored four runs in the first inning, and it was pretty apparently that the "Boers" put up, but in the ninth "Havens's Hobbs" won out, with a run to spare. Clark returned to the game and put up a fast article, both in the field and with the bat, accounting eleven chances and making rapping out a double and two singles in four times up. Kemmer, Bammer and Luitich also put up a nice game, and Longley and Conroy had their batting eyes with them. Weaver and Bigbie led with the stick for Newport News, while Hulsitt and Conroy carried off the fielding honors for their team.

Empire Thornton was fearfully off on his decisions, and as usual Portsmouth got the raw end. He called Longley out at first when touched, resulting in a base after overrunning it, and declared Murray out for running out of the field while returning to first, after starting for second (a very rank decision), but the climax was reached when he called Clark out at ninth, before he had reached the home-plate, and Clark slid beautifully, not being touched until after he was on the bag. Then, too, Kaufman had Weaver clearly struck out in the first inning, but he was given a pass on the plate, but Thornton gave him a free pass. It is such work on the part of the incompetent umpires with which this league has been afflicted that it takes the life out of the players and makes the games uninteresting to the spectators. A decided change in this department of the game cannot be made too soon.

Newport News led off, and scored four times. Weaver was given a pass (by Thornton) and Rapp sacrificed him, scoring on Bigbie's hit. Bigbie advanced to third on Conroy's hit, and Hoffman was hit by pitched ball, filling the bases. Two men scored on O'Brien's hit, and Hoffman tallied on Hicks's safety. In the second, Weaver hit safely, and in the third Bigbie and Conroy got hits, and Hicks was hit by pitcher, but Kaufman sent them from batting. In the fourth, Conroy and another hit, and the fifth opened with a base on balls to Conroy, and in the sixth, Rapp got a single, but no runs resulted.

In the seventh and eighth no men on either side got to base, and in the ninth Weaver led off with a double; Hulsitt hit, scoring Weaver, and stole second himself, tallying on Bigbie's dead ball. The next two men were dead, Bammer and Luitich.

After Kohle and Byers were out for Portsmouth in the first inning, Longley got an infield single, but the umpire said he turned the wrong way, and called him out when Landrum touched him with the ball. In the second inning, Murray was declared out for running out of line while returning to first, after starting for second, and Clark scored from second by daring base-running. Portsmouth was blanked in the third, but added another tally in the fourth. Longley led off with a double, and Kemmer followed with another, taking third on Clark's single when he was left for Murray and Bammer struck out and Luitich lifted a fly to Bigbie. Two men runs came in the fifth, Kaufman scoring a life on Clark's error, stealing second and scoring on Kohle's hit. Kohle advanced on Byers's sacrifice, but died at the plate while attempting to score on Longley's single. Longley taking second on the throw in, from which he scored on Conroy's hit. There were no further runs, although Clark got a hit in the seventh, and Luitich one in the ninth. Allen batted for Kaufman in the ninth, but Hoffman captured his hot one after a hard run.

BUNTS.

Kaufman is a good one!

The boys put up a good game!

Where were the rooters? We almost won!

Portsmouth plays in Hampton Monday!

Hampton comes here Tuesday. We will treat them better than Norfolk did!

The Virginia League is on a sound basis, and all games will be played as scheduled during the season.

Clark put up a great game, and didn't mind his broken finger.

Jimmie Murray's crippled knee seems to have vanished.

The boys have had a hard week of it, but a rest to-morrow will set them all right again.

The next game at home is with Hampton Tuesday afternoon.

IN MEMORIAM.

At a meeting of the Members of the S.
A. L. Ry Library Association, held this day (Saturday), July 7th, the following resolutions were adopted, to be entered upon the records of our association:

Whereas, death has again invaded our ranks and that brave and noble man to remove from our midst our friend and associate, JAMES W. BALLENTINE, whom we all respected for his sterling worth, nobility of character and dedication to principle and duty; therefore, be it Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss sustained by the death of our friend and associate, and the mechanical branch of our shops, which he has so long and so ably filled, and the community in which he lived.

Resolved, That we extend to the family of our deceased friend our most profound condolences in this their great affliction and in bowing to Divine Will, would remind them that he has—"Not gone from Home, not gone from our love to our Father's Home
